Dear Michael,

I found Peter Alsop's and Bill Harley's In the Hospital book and CD entertaining and enlightening. So many children have to spend time in hospital or anticipating hospital stays, and this program seems to touch on and acknowledge many of their feelings around the hospital and the procedures that may happen there. It also gives parents and other adults insight into some of the feelings that children may experience. I think it would be a useful tool to use with children and their families.

Thanks you for letting me know about this program. I will certainly share it with hospital colleagues.

Sincerely,
