Dear Michael:

This is powerful material. As a parent and teacher, who is passionate about the well being of our children, I found 'In the Hospital' inspiring and healing.

Peter Alsop and Bill Harley's approach is one of truthfulness and compassion. They address and acknowledge children's fears instead of down playing or minimizing them. Their humour is uplifting, their directness refreshing, and their empathy commendable.

Thank you for the opportunity to review this program. I wish you success in your endeavors.

Kindest Regards,

Posy Bowerman, A.M.S., E.C.E., T.E.S.O.L.
